

Bradley Charles Glover Chase

April 15, 1988 - August 11, 2012

Bradley Charles Glover

Bradley Charles Glover, son of R. Kirk Glover and Charlett J. Triplett Glover of Franklin, Tennessee, was born on April 15, 1988, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and departed this life on August 11, 2012, while on an outing with friends.

He graduated from Centennial High School, Franklin, Tennessee, in 2006.

He was employed by World Champion Productions where he taught ballroom dancing, professional competitions and was a member of New Song and People Church.

Bradley enjoyed life to the fullest.

Besides his parents he is survived by one brother and sister-in-law, Christopher and wife Andrea Glover of O'Fallon, Missouri; by his maternal grandmother, Jeanne Triplett of Dexter; by five uncles, two aunts, many cousins and friends and by his expected nephew.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Charles L. Triplett, Robert Glover and Pat Glover.

Bradley enjoyed life to the fullest.

His brother, Chris, says, "Brad would do things that most of us did not have the courage to do but dreamed we could."

Brad's nickname was "Chase" and that's what he did.

He chased after life with all the energy he had, and he took all those around him for the ride.

He loved God with all his heart, and he shared his love and excitement of life with everyone he met.

He loved the stage and life, and he never met a stranger.

He was our ambassador, introducing us to everyone.

The last thing Brad said to his mother was, "Mom, I have a job I love!"

How many people can say that!

I dance and get paid for it!"

So now our beautiful son is dancing before the Lord.

He was on loan from God and we are blessed.
