

Don Crouch

December 26, 1936 - November 2, 2009

Don Mack Crouch was born on December 26, 1936 in Marmaduke, Arkansas to Olen and Arlie (Campbell) Crouch.

He died on November 2, 2009 at the age of 72 in the comfort of his own home in Dexter, Missouri with family and close friends surrounding him.

He was preceded in death by both his parents.

Don married his high school sweetheart, Billie Joyce Ward, on August 30, 1957.

Billie survives of the home in Dexter, Missouri.

Also surviving are his four children and their spouses:

Penny (Crouch) Korte and Jerry of Metropolis, Illinois, Donna (Crouch) Christian and Bobby of Dexter, Missouri, Jerry Crouch and Ronda of Indianapolis, Indiana, and Holly (Crouch) Sindle and Darrell of Dexter, Missouri.

Don leave behind thirteen grandchildren that he absolutely adored.

He had a nickname for each one of them.

Surviving grandchildren include:

Jeffrey, Jason, and John Wesley Korte, Bobbie (Christian) Robertson, Amanda, Randy, Kelsey, and Abbey Christian, Laura and Joshua Crouch, and Brandon, Baylee, and Benjamin Sindle.

He also leaves behind eleven great-grandchildren:

Thomas, Emilee and Hunter Korte, Stoney, Brady and Cody Robertson, and Harley and Hailie Anglin and Elizabeth McGhee.

Not yet here, but on the way are Jeremiah Olen Christian and Case Wesley Korte.

Don leaves behind a strong legacy. One of great faith, strong work ethic and a love for Cardinal baseball.

He was a meat cutter for over twenty years until bad health prevailed and he was forced to take on a less physical job.

He then proceeded to obtain his insurance license and sold insurance for
